

NJALA Educational Workshop

Presented by: Business Machine Technologies, Inc.

k

CLOUD 101: Removing the Fear and Confusion Associated with Moving your Business to the Cloud

Tuesday, September 26, 2017 - 11:30am – 1:30 pm

11:30am – 12:00pm – Networking & Lunch

12:00pm – 1:30pm – Presentation

Location: Blume Forte Fried Zerres & Molinari
One Main Street, Chatham, NJ

Live web-streaming of Workshop available!
(Courtesy of business partner, LDI.)

What does it mean to move your data “to the cloud”? If you are like most, you probably have some idea of the basics. Yet, many often resist moving their IT infrastructure to the cloud as they don’t fully understand the technology. This lack of knowledge instills a fear associated with the risks and costs of investing in a new technology. Having a thorough understanding of the cloud – what it is, its benefits, its risks, and how to manage those risks – is a critical step to successful migration.

Topics that will be covered include:

- Defining the Cloud
- Common terms and categories associated with the Cloud
- Primary benefits of moving your IT infrastructure to the Cloud

Stew Smith, VP of Business Development at Business Machine Technologies (BMT), is a former Network Engineer and 21-year BMT veteran. BMT is a comprehensive IT solutions provider serving the tri-state area. Since 1992, the company has offered small to medium-sized companies across various industries a range of services including, Managed IT, Backup and Disaster Recovery, Systems Engineering, Cloud Service, Security, and Advisory Consulting.

To register to attend in-person or via live web-streaming, email Kathy Dart at kdart@keefe-lawfirm.com by Thursday, September 21, 2017.

Please give 24-hrs notice if you must cancel once you have confirmed your attendance, to avoid a $15 meal charge.